Questions

TO CONSIDER

1. What stood out to you as you listened to the message today? How did it impact you and what did you learn?

2. Ruth entered Israel as a Moabite widow with no claim to belonging, yet through Boaz's redemption, she was welcomed, protected, and brought fully into the covenant community. What does Ruth's story reveal about the kind of belonging God offers to those He redeems? How does seeing this in Ruth help us understand the welcome Jesus extends to us as our Redeemer?

You are my family redeemer.

Ruth 3:9b

Questions
TO CONSIDER

3. At the beginning of the story, Naomi says, "I went away full, but the Lord has brought me back empty" (Ruth 1:21). Yet by the end of the book, the women proclaim that God has given her a redeemer and has restored her life (Ruth 4:14–15). What does Naomi's journey from emptiness to fullness teach us about God's restoring grace? How might Naomi's story encourage us to open our hearts to the fullness God desires to bring into our lives — even after seasons of loss?

4. What's one practical step you can take to apply what you've learned today in your life?

5. Choose a verse that was referenced today and discuss its significance in helping you live for the glory of God.

Notes

This is what the LORD says—your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: "I am the LORD your God, who teaches you what is good for you and leads you along the paths you should follow."
